

Rev. Dr. Steve Bowersox is the Executive Worship Leader at Christ the Redeemer Church in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida. He is the founding Executive Director of Integrity Music's Worship International and also an instructor and musician with the Seminars 4 Worship Conferences, Integrity's Institute of Worship Studies, Maranatha! Worship Leaders Workshops, University of Mobile, Regent University, Liberty University and Lillenas Music Conferences. Steve teaches Worship Leadership and technology at the University of Mobile with Dr. Roger Breland and Dr. Pete Sanchez.

Steve holds degrees in music, business and ministry, and has authored the Worship Musician's Theory Course

, Vocal Aerobics: A Fitness Program for Your Voice, 'MIDI'anites Redeemed and the Worship Leaders Survival Kit

. His diverse musical abilities and expertise have afforded him valuable experience as a producer, arranger, worship leader, and studio musician.

Steve has toured with several prominent musicians and is proficient in wind instruments, guitar, bass, electronic keyboards and MIDI. Steve is recognized as one of the pioneers and leaders for technology and training in the church. His humor, mixed with excellent inspirational teaching will minister to your spirit, refresh your mind and motivate you to stir up your gifts. Steve travels around the world teaching on worship as a life-style, leadership and musical excellence. He resides in Jacksonville FL, with his lovely wife Kathy, and their three wonderful children, Rachel, Benjamin & Brooke.